The Textile Arts Club, closely associated with The Cleveland Museum of Art, will hold a two day sale of arts and crafts Thursday, October 25 and Friday, October 26 at the Wade Park Manor. Purchases can be made from 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Thursday and on Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Profits from last year's sale were used to buy a group of early Islamic spindle whorls which were recently presented to The Cleveland Museum of Art.

These whorls are important documents of early Islamic decorative art. They were used as weights to increase tension during the spinning process.
